TRAVELING EXHIBIT PROGRAM

African American Musicians of North Carolina

EXHIBIT BACKGROUND

“African American Musicians of North Carolina” celebrates the contributions of individuals and bands to regional and popular culture. In addition to a title and introductory panel, seven panels feature various musical genres highlighting African American musicians of North Carolina. These include string bands, blues, gospel, jazz, soul, funk, and hip hop. A final panel highlights the N.C. Arts Council’s African American Music Trail through the state’s central coastal plain. An interactive touch screen allows users to learn more about several musicians and listen to examples of Black North Carolinians’ musical creations.
